

Bio:

Chermia Amour is a multi-talented force to be reckoned with in the fashion and art industries. Her stunning one-of-a-kind designs and creative approach have caught the attention of a wide range of clients, including some of the biggest names in entertainment. Among her impressive roster of celebrity clientele are Mary J. Blige, Angela Simmons, and Iyanla Vanzant.

In addition to her custom designs, Chermia has launched her own line of swimsuits and other custom products. Her expertise in the arts has also led her to offer paint party services to some of the world's leading corporations, such as Nordstrom's, NBC, Columbia Law School, Max & Mara, and Jack & Jill of Westchester.

Chermia's passion for art goes beyond just fashion and custom products. She is a Visual Art teacher at Mott Hall Charter School in the Bronx, where she uses her skills and experience to inspire the next generation of artists. Chermia has also developed enrichment programs for middle and high school students, which provide a unique and creative approach to learning about the arts.

Chermia's passion for promoting the arts and creating opportunities for the next generation of artists is evident in her creation of the Summer ArtMakers Camp. Through this initiative, she educates young students on the importance of Black representation in the art industry and provides them with the tools and inspiration needed to succeed. Her commitment to diversity in the arts and fostering the next generation of creatives has earned her widespread recognition and praise from her peers in the industry such as BET and Fashion Bomb Daily.

In short, Chermia Amour is a highly talented designer, artist, and educator who has achieved remarkable success in the fashion and art industries. Her work with high-profile clients and corporations, as well as her commitment to inspiring and educating the next generation of artists, make her an impressive figure in the world of fashion and the arts.
